Bournemouth 2026 Trust Annual Conference & AGM

The Annual Conference was a great success and Marten Sims' passionate key note speech got us all thinking about "What Makes a Happy City?".

All delegates who attended thoroughly enjoyed the day, participating with enthusiasm, positivity and humour!!

The guest speakers produced informative presentations where some very interesting and inspirational ideas were "proposed" and discussed; the final Workshop was based on trying to improve the connection and flow between Boscombe High Street and the sea front!

During the lunch break, delegates tucked into a delicious selection of quiche and salad accompanied by some heart-warming soup - all provided by The Little Vintage Catering Company (Boscombe); networking opportunities were made the most of!

We were lucky enough to have a graphic recorder and photographer for the day; to view the graphics just click on this link

This year Business Come Dancing - Thursday 14th December - is in aid of The Mayor of Bournemouth's Charity Appeal. Every year, the Mayor chooses local Charities to support during the Mayoral Year. All the profit raised through donations, fundraising events and the Mayor's Emporium in Boscombe is divided between those Charities at the Mayor's sole discretion, ratified by the Charity Trustees. The charities are presented with their cheques by the Mayor at the end of the Mayoral Year.

The current Mayor, Councillor Lawrence Williams, supports the following local charities:

- The Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra (Charity No 208520)
- Pavilion Dance South-West (Charity No 1111641)
- The Hannah Levy House Trust (Charity No 237191)
- The Russell-Cotes Art

The Metropole Street Market is a quintessentially eccentric ensemble of all things creative & delicious. Lansdowne is home to an eclectic collection of independent retailers and high-street brands. On Sunday 17th December, they will be joined by an abundance of fayre from the best producers, artists and crafts people that the county has to offer.
