Bournemouth 2026 Trust Under New Management

Bournemouth 2026 Trust welcomes Simon Bull who has joined the team at The Old School House as the Trust's new Development Manager. Simon takes over from Tina Thompson, who retired last month after many years helping to develop 2026 as an independent charity.

Simon will be well known to many of you from his previous role as Chief Executive of Vita Nova, and more recently as the Bournemouth Councillor for Winton East, representing The Green Party.

Pam Donnellan, Chair of 2026 Trustees said "We are delighted to have appointed Simon who brings a wealth of experience in the voluntary and charitable sector, as well as a real understanding of the needs of the diverse communities in Bournemouth." Simon said "I am looking forward to working for the Trust at this very exciting time in its development."

Show Cancer the Red Card Event

Wessex Voices in partnership with AFC Bournemouth to put on a cancer awareness day. Show Cancer the Red Card cancer screening awareness day is on Saturday the 20th of May 2017 at the Sovereign Centre from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm.

There will be information on health promotion, accessing cancer screening services, spotting the signs of cancer and accessing support services. There will be a chance to win a family swim voucher or a personal training session at one of the BH Live Centres. Jeff Mostyn, Chair of AFC Bournemouth, will be attending and drawing out the prize winners.

So come along to the Sovereign Centre for important information that could save your life.

Co-Lab for Creative Freelancers

The Old School House puts on a Co-Lab every Tuesday from 12:30 pm. The Co-Lab is put on by the co-workers of The Old School House in Boscombe.

These Co-Labs are open to creative freelancers and are a great opportunity to share ideas and explore opportunities. Are you a creative freelancer who often feels a bit isolated working on your own? Then come to these Co-Labs and meet others in your sector and be part of the adventure!
